THE DEATH OF DEATH

March 10, 2019

The Death of Death (Prequel)
John 11:1-45

The narrative of John chapter 11, tracks the resurrection of Lazarus as both a tragedy and a triumph. Not only does the miracle sequence include a picture of real suffering--as Jesus' friend Lazarus succumbs to illness--but it also serves as a prequel (or foreshadowing) of Christ's own victorious resurrection. In examining the concept of resurrection, we find the mashup of hardship and hope that has given shape to the people of God in the past, present and future.

Update ... Bathroom Remodel

Beginning March 10, the upstairs bathrooms will be remodeled. The first will be the men's and there will be port-a-potties on site and the downstairs bathrooms for use. During this time, there will be one week, the week of March 11-20, that both bathrooms will be unusable. After that time, the women's will be in operation while the men's is being finished. Once the men's is finished, the women's bathroom remodel will be started and become unusable. The Men's bathroom will become the Women's in the interim, with the men using the port-a-potties and downstairs bathrooms. The full bathroom remodel is expected to be finished by April 15.
