Blessing Out of Brokenness: Part 2 "Brokenness Prompts Grateful Love" Luke 7:36-50

The inward disposition of brokenness is counter-intuitive. And yet out of the soil of that inward disposition can flow a beauty that is compelling. A high profile religious leader once invited Jesus into home, but during that visit the host offered to Jesus none of the courtesies that a host of that day might offer. However, a woman who was an uninvited guest to that party offered to Jesus an extravagance of kindness. What was the difference? The contrast between the two characters helps to illustrate a meaningful link between inward brokenness and what we might call, "grateful love." What can we learn from this New Testament story, and how could it impact the way we see and relate to Jesus in 2017?

Let Us Pray With You of For You

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

At Mountain View we have a prayer group of over 130 people ready to pray for your needs, no matter how small, or how many. The prayer group is committed to confidentiality. This is not a group for gossip, but for committed people who will lift up your need prayerfully because they believe God answers prayer and they love the Body of Christ.

If you have a prayer need, there are several ways you can communicate your need. Write the need on the back of a CONNECT card at church, e-mail the office (office@mvcglenwood.org) or e-mail the Prayer Team (prayer@mvcglenwood.org). If you wish to remain anonymous just note that with your request.
