Blessing Out of Brokenness: Part 3 "Brokenness Provokes Great Faith" Matthew 15:21-28

Surprise gets our attention. Jesus had a conversation with an unnamed Canaanite woman that was surprising. This woman had come to Jesus on behalf of her suffering daughter. And the initial response of Jesus to the woman seems rather distant and even a bit dismissive. Yet He was purposefully drawing out of the woman an expression of faith that was stunning. Jesus called it, "great faith." In this passage we are going to see how the disposition of healthy internal brokenness cultivates "great faith." Though the term, brokenness, is not explicitly mentioned in this episode, the qualities of healthy brokenness are magnificently evident in this woman. The Bible says that without faith it is impossible to please God (Hebrews 11:6), and that it is through the instrument of faith that we access the grace God wants us to receive and enjoy (Ephesians 2:8). So in this passage, we want to give attention to the link between biblical "brokenness" and faith.

Middle & High School
Youth Groups

Groups will NOT meet during the summer.

THANK YOU ...

Dear Mountain View,
Thank you for your continued partnership with Haitian Christian Mission! We could not do what we do without you. Your gifts enable us to continue to serve and minister to the people of Haiti and share with them the love of Christ. We look forward to continuing to partner with you and we thank you for your prayers and the encouragement you have given us.

God bless! The HCM Team

To help us maintain accurate information in our directory, please check your information and provide us with any updates.

You can send changes to the church office at (office@mcglenwood.org) or make the changes on the directory that will be in the foyer on Sunday morning.

Thank you to everyone who assisted these past two weekends with the Snearly and Golden funerals. The families were very appreciative.
