The Power of Praying Together

I Corinthians 1:3-11

There is an unusual power that results when there is agreement in prayer between believers. There is reason to call many to pray in perilous times. Jesus certainly commends personal prayer. And Jesus and the biblical writers also speak to the value of corporate prayer. In this final message in this series, Pastor Tim is going to share why this passage has deeply impacted his own life about the unique and beautiful dynamic of praying together.

Thank You Mountain View Church

Thank you so much for your incredible support for the kids' snacks this year! What a difference your gift will make for the rest of this year, especially for the kiddos who don't eat lunch and their only food is The Center snack. We are very grateful!! -Katie Stewart

Thank you for providing assistance to local community members to feel empowered to move forward while experiencing a hardship. Your support is valued by the clients and your local Salvation Army. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts! -Karen Lee, case worker

We want to say thank you for your continued prayers and support in the ministries God has allowed us to be a part of. We are excited about where God has led us next in reaching internationals with the gospel and training up missionaries to send to the ends of the earth. We hope to share more with you this fall. Thank You again! -The McEntyres
