Legacy:
"Learning from the Lives of Others"
July 30 – August 27

Legacy

Hezekiah – Courage and Bold Leadership
II Kings 18:1-6

Leadership is more than "being in charge." It is privilege and it is responsibility. Leadership at times requires tough calls. It calls for courage and humility. In the Older Testament of the Bible we meet a young king who exercised extraordinary courage during a time of moral and spiritual malaise in Judah. One of the steps he took to challenge the malaise was to shatter a symbol that the people had considered sacred for 700 years. Why would he do that? That symbol had actually diverted people from the worship of God. If we can see that an idol is anything that usurps God's rightful place in our lives, we will see how Hezekiah's story has extraordinary relevance for us. You see, good things become detrimental things if we ever allow these "good things" in subtle ways to usurp the place of God.

Let Us Pray With You or For You

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

At Mountain View we have a prayer group of over 130 people ready to pray for your needs, no matter how small, or how many. The prayer group is committed to confidentiality. This is not a group for gossip, but for committed people who will lift up your need prayerfully because they believe God answers prayer and they love the Body of Christ.

If you have a prayer need, there are several ways you can communicate your need. Write the need on the back of a CONNECT card at church, e-mail the office (office@mvcglenwood.org) or e-mail the Prayer Team (prayer@mvcglenwood.org). If you wish to remain anonymous just note that with your request.

One Square Meal: Ended July 28.

Vacation Bible School: Cancelled.

Life-Line Ministry, Feed My Sheep and Lift-Up - Containers for drop off items are located by the church office.

Reminder - Following Service PLEASE pick up any trash you see in the sanctuary or foyer. This would be extremely helpful.

Baptism
